Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, January 16, 2016 – 10:30 a.m.

All the deceptive spirits pretending to speak in our Name might be able to convince some abhyasis, but they will not extend very far into the future. Our dear son Kamlesh will have to remain vigilant on this point. It is easy to imitate and deceive; the human being does not have all the necessary resources to make sense of things in this area. The spiritual Master of this Mission, chosen and prepared by us for his difficult task, will always be inspired as needed; let him not doubt this. His perceptions will become increasingly refined, permitting a personal communication sufficient to guide him according to his needs. Time will affirm his position as Sage, as Master, inspired for the needs of this Mission that is rapidly growing, much more than it may seem. In his heart lie the awaited answers. We guide him as best as possible; he is not alone – not ever.

By working according to our wishes, he fits perfectly into this very subtle egregore that determines the life of this Mission. The Mission will deeply mark this century; the spiritual evolution of humans is planned in this way. This Sahaj Marg path corresponds perfectly to the needs of today and to the more elaborated ways of the future. It will meet them appropriately and will even go beyond what can be envisioned today. Human beings are very small in the face of the divine power, undetectable for them, but so very active. All is well like this. In this domain surrender and love are recommended for the best.

Blessings to all.
