Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, February 23, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

Your sufferings are not in vain, you know this. Your life in this regard too will have been fruitful. The divine designs escape human understanding – such is the case for all. Karma keeps its mysteries well, and ultimately it is better this way. The meanders of an incarnation hold surprises; consider the example of a long-time and fervent abhyasi who is appointed Master of the Mission, something he could not have imagined at the beginning of his journey. Thus do the divine laws operate, and for good reason, even if this is not discernible to the one concerned. The essential thing is accomplished, that is what matters. Many Great Beings who have left their mark on this world never imagined such a destiny. Sahaj Marg has already expanded considerably in the world, and this growth will only increase, at all levels. Great and beautiful ashrams will be built and they will become high places of this Sahaj Marg Mission, whose expansion will continue in the future for the good of our practitioners.

How to imagine such development – all major paths that have influenced the world started small, one could say, and then spread worldwide. What must be will be. What is good for the human being endures and leaves a significant and lasting imprint. By the grace of higher powers.

Special blessings to all.
