Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, March 20, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

Human beings, by becoming incarnate, follow a well-traced path before them. They don't always do it as they should, but on the whole no one escapes their destiny – this is how it is, one might say. How many lives will it take for this evolutionary cycle to reach its conclusion. A well-led spiritual approach saves time. This aspect, in itself, is cause for rejoicing and worthy of consideration – of this you can be sure. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see the light; this image can make one dream. Each one commits themselves to this process according to their innermost aspirations.

Our ceaseless action generates very encouraging results in this extraordinary quest.

Everyone has their own potential; bringing it to fruition is the best possible course of action. This is not always easy to understand. Human beings often prefer to enjoy life, as they say, but their Karma inevitably catches up with them and they must face it. Following a spiritual path allows a person to better mark the stages and to eliminate what hinders each one's evolution. Being aware of this situation is a big step forward. Everyone advances at their own pace. How many beings manage to grasp the numerous aspects of this matter – the truth about the human race is so hidden.

No matter, our brothers and sisters are on their way, and we are following their evolutionary cycle in this unusual framework, decisive for their future. All may rejoice. Whatever may be their involvement in this system, they have made the right choice.

Blessings to all.
