Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, May 7, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

The periods following seminars are conducive to a spiritual blossoming, to the deepening of this unparalleled quest for the Divine. Each seminar leaves a trace and, in its own manner, marks the path of each of our aspirants, as the transcendence of the Spirit works wonders, one can say. Nothing is lost from such unique gatherings, and being totally open to this action leads to very convincing results. In all its apparent simplicity, the path of Sahaj Marg nevertheless offers multiple benefits. In this system we disregard grand ritualistic displays, which are of no importance. Our fervent, long-standing abhyasis can, to some extent, measure its effects. When they leave this world, they will be able to fully assess its results, and they will be happy. This incarnation will not have been in vain, as each brings a valuable element to this long epic in which difficulties of all kinds abound.

Efforts made in this direction during one's lifetime bear precious fruit for the remainder of the journey.

Commitment and fervour generate grace, that which elevates the entity to the pinnacle of success. Seeing the entire Mission progress fills us with joy, a joy that greatly heightens the fervour of many abhyasis. Everything in its time; one day the divine goal will be attained – therein lies the reason for our ceaseless action, for the good of all.

Very special blessings.
