Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, May 8, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

Patience, my dear daughter, you will come to join us, soon. One day you will again find this country that is so dear to your heart – India. That visual contact [via Skype session on May 2] has rekindled in your heart many memories of previous lives in which you left a mark.

Life is like that – from one incarnation to the next there is a subtle link that sometimes makes it possible to pursue a desired action.

The vibratory strength of this spiritual way attracts beautiful souls in search of the Divine, as part of an action that suits them for their own personal development. The Sahaj Marg Mission offers this opportunity to many of our brothers and sisters who are receptive to what it brings, both valuable and decisive, in such a process. This one is not futile, you can be sure; it saves a lot of time. Isn't this the sought-after goal?

In the future, India will indeed find the grandeur of a very distant past. This is how life is; cycles recur according to the need of the present time, to perfect what already exists and to advance even further on this long journey of life.

This story is not about to end. Many events will occur that will bring this world closer to a higher reality, decisive for the good of humanity.

Continuous blessings upon this Mission, for the good of all.
