Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, October 19, 2016 – 10:00 a.m

No one is spared on this Earth; each one's Karma manifests itself inexorably. How many trials one has to live through to complete this long journey of life. The Greatest Beings are not spared; they are examples, one might say, for the average person. Inexorably certain events occur that no one expects. Acceptance is the only possible attitude, when faith and trust are there.

The human heart holds such powers as are beyond human perception; divine laws establish rules that are not easy to understand. There lies this active power which is connected to the divine Order that determines life as a whole, and in its tiniest particle. Human beings are so small before it. They believe they know, but what do they really know, except that which is possible at this current stage of human evolution. All in good time – so it is.

To all, peace and serenity on this difficult path of life.
