Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, November 9, 2016 – 10:30 a.m.

You are the 'scribe' chosen by our hearts; unanimously we selected you for this beautiful Mission which is so special, and whose importance the future will reveal. This choice was not made lightly; there is no shortage of mediums, but the action here goes well beyond appearances and will become clearer in the future.

Sahaj Marg is called upon for a substantial expansion and these messages will have a prominent role, far beyond what can be envisaged today, in its apparent great simplicity. The underlying action of these writings supports and confirms that of the incarnate Master, who is so engaged and productive of very satisfactory results.

We fully support our dear Kamlesh; nothing is simple for him, but you can be sure he is doing what is best. Time will reveal his greatness – he is the fruit of our respective actions which brought this path to the best that can be. His ability to manage events will produce results that will leave a very strong imprint on the Mission. Each of the Masters has played his part, our dear and great son will confirm this action by bringing it to light.

To him, all our love and our wishes for the continuation of his mandate, carried by excellence. This is how it is.
