Pure hearts will see the beauty of these messages. They will feel it deep down. They will not be able to doubt their authenticity and will not dwell on the literary form. We already expressed ourselves on this aspect; it is precisely their simplicity which will touch the sensitive souls. Each one receives as per their needs. It is their profound aspiration which attracts to them the spiritual food suited to them.

"Yes, this world is vibration; we had never addressed this aspect. People should actually admit also this reality which is the foundation of all creation. This comprehension would allow man to better find his bearings and realize that he is only a negligible piece of the 'Great Whole'. The universe is a vibratory mass in motion. The human being is a dust of atom that vibrates in space; this should be meditated on.

"In the future, man will have to reconsider his conception of the universe."
