Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, December 3, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

The Montpellier ashram is living a beautiful moment; it is blessed, especially on this day, by our respective presences. We follow it with interest, in an expansion that will go on increasing. The ashrams are sacred axes that profoundly mark our Mission. Each of them has its unique feature, just like human beings, playing a major role in a spiritual path by enlivening it, in accordance with our wishes. We can see here the impact of this Sahaj Marg way; however simple it may appear, its effects are very productive. Our dear son Kamlesh is opening up new prospects for it, and that is very positive. Sahaj Marg will assert itself more and more, attracting many hearts that are calling but not yet truly aware of it. An unprecedented advancement will occur at this level, and it will be decisive for an evolution that is planned and so necessary on this Earth. Finding 'one's way' is not simple here below where so many disturbances interfere with the vibrational balance of a human being.

When the soul is ready to follow such a process, things become clearer, facilitating this extraordinary commitment.

To all, peace and personal fulfilment in this quest for the Divine, uncommon and oh so active.
