Whispers from The Brighter World

The Medium:"Divine Babuji, you are the light on the path ...."

And you are following it so well, dear scribe. These writings emanate from our united hearts, and are carried by a divine energy whose essence is very subtle. This permits an extraordinary action that operates in response to the call for it. 'Everything has its raison d'être', as we have said often enough. We do not repeat ourselves in vain; so many beautiful souls are progressing on this path of Sahaj Marg, far beyond what they imagine. The apparent simplicity of its action produces results that are nonetheless convincing. This practice will one day reveal all the finesse of its action, when the time comes. A global evolution will occur to purify a society that is, in many ways, in distress. Too much turbulence and so many troubles destabilise the human being – seriously so, for those who are more fragile and sensitive to all these negative energies. 'Progress', as it is taking shape today, is quite alarming for the stability of humankind. These comments, alas, can be verified; such progress does not bring only advantages. 'What must be will be', changes will come at the appropriate time for the future of a humanity that is more just and conducive to the evolution of all. Very special blessings, in view of this prospect where the spiritual will act in its own way for the general good.
