Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, January 1, 2017 – 10:00 a.m.

A new year begins, according to your criteria. All peoples have their own. We conform to the customs of one and all. Our action lies well beyond all these conventions, while nevertheless respecting those of all our abhyasis.

We unite them in our own manner, in an energy whose action is unique and whose results are measurable. A perfect incarnation free of trials does not exist. Each incarnation allows the spiritual entity of a human being to progress, to advance in the discovery of a higher reality to which it is good to conform. So many lives are needed to reach the goal alluded to here. Where does life begin and where does it end! There lies the question. Each of the different worlds of creation has its own mystery. The entity of all must conform to divine laws, and these laws alone naturally prevail, a fact which totally escapes general knowledge.

Here we try to open 'this path', to make it accessible to minds that are open and that do not limit themselves to a very restrictive view of the phenomena governing the world.

All of creation forms quite an impressive whole when it is possible to approach it and go deeper into its causes and effects.

The Sahaj Marg path was designed to guide the human being towards a certain state of wisdom. There is so much to do in this regard. Bringing this world to a satisfactory level of elevation remains the challenge to which all of us here are committed. May the best happen for all.
