Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, January 3, 2017 – 10:00 a.m.

Despite the broad possibilities we have here, we do not have the power to deter all the beings that imitate us. Many entities do so and abuse the trust of human beings receptive to their words. What more can we say about this, our recommendations on the matter are numerous. 'Sahaj Marg' is not the first path whose actions have been imitated. May our abhyasis not let themselves be deceived, but rather try to discriminate between truth and falsehood. We are following our 'way', that which is offered to us and which becomes more precise as time goes by. We are moving at the intended pace. Some of our aspirants would like us to move faster, more intensely in terms of the revelations that will be made in due course. The rigour of these laws does not allow us to go beyond what is possible in the present era. Following what is currently offered already allows one to go beyond everyday banality.

Spirituality, in the context of what we offer, is very significant, you can be sure.

Not everything can be measured in the sense that you understand it; true progress cannot be assessed in human terms, according to your wishes.

'Doesn't everything have its raison d'être'!

Unceasing and special blessings on this day, to all who call for them. So it is.
