Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, March 8, 2017 – 10:00 a.m.

Inner contemplation and union with the Masters' hearts generate each day a perfect communion with the Hierarchy. These messages are the result of a deep and uncommon love; it will leave its mark on this Mission in a way that is unimaginable today. Each step taken helps to anchor this way of the heart a little more. Everything is falling into place, little by little, until the very best is achieved. Over the course of time, a sacred edifice is being built, one capable of going beyond the limits of materiality.

This way of love will produce the very best, to truly unite beings on the path of peace and serenity.

It is up to all to truly progress and conquer this sacred space.

Ceaseless blessings.
