Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, May 4, 2017 – 10:00 a.m.

This high place of Hyderabad will become the strong point of the Mission, where our energies will become more and more concentrated. At the material level, the Mission is evolving and will establish itself as it must, for the good of all. What a long way it has come since its early days; the previous Masters have done their best and given it a solid foundation. Sahaj Marg is destined to expand considerably – this will be important for the good of seekers thirsting for the Divine and for a spiritual progress special in its effects.

Nothing is simple, nor can anything be obtained without effort – spontaneity, perseverance and boldness are necessary to reach the goal. It is not simple to attain, but what satisfaction such an achievement brings. The conquest of the sovereign Spirit considerably expands the perception of phenomena. Opening one's heart totally to this plenitude of the Spirit transforms the whole being. Here begins this sacred climb, where the best is obtained, leading to the plenitude of heart. So it is.
