Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, May 6, 2017 – 10:00 a.m.

The Sahaj Marg Mission is progressing in its own way; it satisfies many hearts through its simplicity and its uncommon action. The future will give it the lustre that is fitting, its results will be exemplary. It is extremely pleasing to feel supported in a process like this, where the aspiration of the soul is strongly emphasised. Time is counted, precious, each step leading to the goal, to the plenitude of the Spirit, which is decisive in a life. To progress towards it and to profit fully from the states it produces – bliss, among others – isn't this the best there is? Every human being is advancing in this search – isn't that the ultimate happiness? To all, perseverance and success; there lies the deep aspiration of each one.

Special blessings to all.
