Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, May 17, 2017 – 10:00 a.m.

My dear daughter, this long journey of messages has created between our hearts a strong and precious bond, please believe it. Meeting each other again will be a great Joy; you will witness here, with us, the advancement of this Mission that you love, while participating in its expansion in the world. You will thus be able to give your best alongside your dear and great son Kamlesh. Your destinies have been crossing for a very long time and complement each other in their respective actions. You will meet again in Hyderabad, each one of you being active in your own manner. Both of you have a profound wish to serve this beautiful path of Sahaj Marg, which will take on a considerable expansion in the future. This will delight your hearts as it has delighted ours for a long time now. It is so rewarding to participate in such a project; these messages will inspire many people in the future – you will observe this gladly. What you heard yesterday is a beginning. May all our abhyasis be blessed in their respective actions.
