Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, May 29, 2017 – 10:00 a.m.

Let yourself be carried by this wave of love that delights your heart – it yearns only for that. Repetition is necessary, as you know. Without it, the world such as it is would not exist.

The Sahaj Marg Mission is in full expansion. The years have shaped it, and it has not yet reached its highest and most productive level. Our dear Kamlesh keeps surprising us; the future will inspire him in a very satisfying way. We are outlining for him broader and more efficient foundations in space. He will adapt to the various situations, and we will inspire him as always. Without appearing so, this world is evolving and preparing a future in line with cosmic variations. The evolution of humanity is inevitable; we are following the trend, and all is well thus.

May this path respond ever more to the aspirations of the multitude, of all our brothers and sisters who have been invested for a long time and inspired as they should be. May the best be for each of them.
