My dear son,

"We have been waiting for a long time to establish this way of communication. Don't regret having doubted; doubt is human and you share it in large proportions with our medium. You should know well that neither is it obvious for her. We even prefer this attitude rather than too much confidence. We chose and prepared her towards a precise goal, of which to bring you, in some complex situations, another echo to your cogitations. Do not be affected too much by what is happening in France and in other countries of Europe; the evil has the same origin. No way imposed itself on a large scale, without meeting this kind of resistance, sooner or later. One has only to look back, into the past centuries, when so many tragedies were brought about by men's stupidity. Nothing can be done about it. The evil must arise to let emerge the beauty of a system that will find its due place, at any cost, to help this mad world. It will bring to men of this Earth a means to live more in accordance with divine laws.

"We support you and we love you, my dear son. Be blessed, so much, on this special day."
