Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, September 13, 1998 – 10:40 a.m.

My message will be short today.

Love, tolerance and perseverance in the practice: Apply yourselves to this programme seriously. Don't waste the time allotted to you. Make efforts to progress. Life is short, even if you think the opposite. Your assessments are not really accurate. As for the ashram, you know what I expect of you. Use the tools given to you. It is very simple; don't complicate things. Let yourselves be carried by faith and devotion. Minimize the disadvantages of material life. Give thanks for having such a spiritual means of advancing. So, take heart, get down to work.

Blessings.

The Medium: Is that really all you wanted to say, Babuji?

Yes, you are my beloved daughter; I carry you on my heart, as you wish.
