The Medium: Babuji, I would like to be at your feet and never move from there...

So you do not want to serve me anymore? You've forgotten all I've told you on the subject... Meditate a little longer, clear your heart of its torments, we will resume afterwards.

(10:30 a.m.)

Remember the 'star'; plunge into its light, it is there you will find me.

One day, when you are with us, you will realize the narrowness of human views. They believe they are so strong – all these 'learned' ones. The evolution of the Earth, in relation to other planets, is still in its infancy. In fact, it is in its first tentative steps. But all that is of no interest; only the spiritual progress of beings matters, yours in particular. Don't despair, as you are doing at this moment. Don't make any hasty decision. Don't let yourself be influenced; find a solution in the here and now. Continue, as much as possible, to hold your small meetings. They are important for all of you. We use each tool differently.

Octave has done his work well; he is very sincere in his approach, thank him.

The Medium: O Babuji...

Yes, my child, we are here. Don't say you are abandoned. You know well that it's nothing of the sort. Be strong and determined to advance further and further. At the ashram, also, we are advancing step by step; unity is going to be rebuilt gently. We bless you and those close to you.
