Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, April 5, 1999 – 10:00 a.m.

All the joys we can give you, you will have.

There is love around you. You are not forgotten, either by humans or by us.

Humans have 'things' to do which they believe to be important and they don't always show up when they should, but no matter!

Don't you have your secret garden where you can marvel at the colours, the scents, and become inebriated on the divine nectar?

Don't let these waves of melancholy tarnish the harmony of the place.

Who can give you such joys in this world? Taste the voluptuousness of Sahaj Samadhi; it is to be experienced and can't be described.

Be delighted in it, my child.

Babuji