Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, April 6, 1999 – 5:00 p.m.

Your heart can become the heart of the world. A thousand suns and a thousand planets can inhabit it. Each one of your particles is a latent world. Everything is in everything.

The whole creation is but a breath of the Divine.

Who are you as thinking and acting entities? Always consider yourselves as being as small as an atom in the hand of God.
