Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, April 15, 1999 – 8:00 a.m.

Love, it is like a cry towards the Creator, the bond connecting Him to his creature.

Love is His food, the substance which He imbibes.

All the rest is but a material vibration.

Understand that it is the key that opens doors, a luminous vibration making the least of your cells sparkle.

This is what attracts Him and what he expects from you all.

Love, love – that is my recommendation!

Link yourselves to this magnificent chain and vibrate in unison.

Let yourselves be carried away on the wings of the Divine.

When you taste these moments of intense joy, you forget the realities of life and all your human miseries.

The alchemist who seeks to transform metal into gold goes astray in a futile process.

The real gold is inside. One may not know it, but unconsciously one aspires to this discovery.

You who have already understood where the treasure lies, continue your search unremittingly.

One day, you will see the wonder dawn: a thousand gold points of light will dance on your heart and your inner joy will be boundless.

Be joyful, like children in search of a treasure.

When you find it, you will remain speechless in front of so much beauty.

Be active, never lose heart; it is the only search worthy of the wise.

Don't dwell on the form, my child. I have already told you, only the spirit matters in our literature.

Love the repetition of words, it is necessary. (Laughs)

So it is!
