Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, May 9, 1999 – 8:00 a.m.

Lalaji did indeed come to visit you yesterday; he has granted you a favour... you will see. We will not say more about it.

Everything changes, everything moves; it is an eternal renewal down to the least aspect of life.

The Masters of the past have done their work. We, for our part, are doing ours – other tasks fall to them.

The Christ spirit, as you all call it, manifests itself in different ways depending on the epoch. These Masters of the past have gone in other directions.

Do not expect, as some believe, to see Master Jesus reappear.

The wheel of time turns and calls other great realized beings to fulfil a given mission.

God, the Guru of the gurus, knows what He is doing.

Ancient beliefs are deeply rooted in memories. Most human beings are not very evolved; their understanding is commensurate with their spiritual openness.

Our path will have an important place in the future. It will not be the only one, but it will attract many men and women who have gone past the stage of religions and are ready to take on a true journey.

One of the best means of awakening will be offered to them, they will understand it, the new era will open up minds.

The obscurantism maintained by religions will disappear little by little, in step with the general evolution.

The blinkers will fall off, the truth will be perceptible to the greatest number.
