Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, May 16, 1999 – 10:00 a.m.

Your François is doing an important work, you can be proud of him, he is a precious collaborator.

His experience of human leadership on Earth and his human qualities prepared him for what he is doing today; he is an exceptional being.

The Medium: I miss him sorely, Babuji. I imagine how happy he must be to serve you, service was his raison d'être here below.

We have more than one way of making use of beings like him, the needs are quite varied.

You will make a good team when you meet again.

Your Earthly experiences will have prepared both of you to do great things.

For the time being, you must continue on your way alone, even if it is painful. Your training will be all the more productive.

Rest, don't be anxious.

Be blessed, my daughter.
