Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, May 31, 1999 – 8:00 a.m.

The time of hatred rages on Earth. To love one another, a beautiful formula that seems completely outdated – did it ever exist in reality?

Long before these wars, more and more destructive, was there more love manifested?

Why all this hatred, why? All this rancour between nations, races, families, and individuals.

What venom is this that has inoculated human beings?

They want to go conquer other planets. To do what? To sow the same evil.

What good can they bring? Even what they think of as progress could prove fatal to other forms of life.

We dream of an Earth where we would come to rejoice in the wisdom of human beings and to bless them.

The two aspects of human nature, the good and the bad sides, are each getting stronger. Where will this trend take us?

One must neither give up nor despair of humankind. Not only should one focus on the good side of each person, but also see this mass of individuals who are doing their best to make a success of their lives and to help others do likewise.

Spirituality appears to us as the only effective means to change humanity.

It will take time and much patience.

So, help us – let's not despair, let's try, each with the tools at our disposal – together, to build this unique, luminous pyramid that will rise towards the sky and remain on Earth, come hell or high water, the most beautiful edifice, as a testament to human love.
