Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, June 10, 1999 – 8:00 a.m.

Your body is a wonderful tool that we use to move you further along.

You are no longer in revolt, you understand our reasons.

Everyone has their own path, more or less challenging depending on where they are and where they want to go.

You don't have an easy path, but you chose it.

Don't worry, all is well for you. You have the gift of being able to move us, we see who you really are and we love you.

Humans have blinders, their feelings fluctuate. They are caught up in life, nothing is definitive and sure with them.

Here, that is not the case; don't be afraid of anything, we will not abandon you.

Don't fear the future, trust in divine Providence and in the sincere people who will come forward, until the end, to help you.

The turmoil into which this treatment plunges you does not encourage you to see life through rose-tinted glasses.

If you don't have the courage, have some of the messages read back to you; the vibration emanating from them will help you, and you will feel closer to me.
