Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, June 16, 1999 – 8:00 a.m.

Calm down, eliminate your stress, come and join us – otherwise we will not be able to communicate. We understand your disappointment with this new treatment, all is not lost. Perhaps there will be another means to relieve you?

The main thing lies elsewhere; you are not ignored by the greatest. We expect a special work from you.

You know certain aspects of it, the rest you will know about when the time comes.

You have given of yourself, just know that your wish is answered, and that you have been utilized for a long time.

That's all that is important for you to know – true surrender is that.

We appreciate the fact that you are not curious. In our eyes, it is a quality that serves you. You don't ask any questions about the profound meaning of what is being done through you.

It is very hard to take on, my child. You keep up appearances so much that your circle does not realize your difficulties.

One would think you are in great shape.

Moaning and letting yourself go would not change your state whatsoever.

Keep smiling for us who are often near you and for those who surround you.

Never doubt the hidden side of your work, your role is not negligible.

It is not necessary to roam the world in order to be able to act and to fulfil one's purpose.

To each one, their own mission – this is a great lesson to keep in mind.

We understand your desire to live outside, but with time, you understand that the inner journey is a hundred times more enriching and useful – for you.

Patience, my daughter, you satisfy us.

Be blessed.
