Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, July 5, 1999 – 8:00 a.m.

Do you really want this to be the end of these messages?

The Medium: No, Babuji, I would have a very painful impression of being useless. A great vacuum would be created in me, as if you did not dwell in me any more.

Your reaction is due to your state of fatigue and the effect of this big upset.

Life does not stop for all that; the channel is intact and we can continue by lightening up a little to let you catch your breath.

Since Saturday, you have experienced good, spiritually strong moments together.

These states are not necessarily perceivable. You have benefited from special blessings. Remain united and supportive of each other in this matter which creates a bond between you.

You are the first custodians of these messages, it is a grace you are receiving. We are happy with the result, this is a very good work, well processed and well packaged – it looks good!

They are precious in many regards, given the conditions in which our dear scribe has been working, more with her heart than with her own strength, especially on certain days.

We will continue, as long as it is possible to do so. Many things have been said – the main things. You have food for thought; each one of you has evolved, without even realizing it. Since you read them, you see things in a different light. Continue to nourish yourselves on them; your hearts will soften in the right sense. These messages are entrusted to you; make good use of them, now and in the future.

They are under your care.
