Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, July 14, 1999 – 10:00 a.m.

My child, the message of hope comes from all these souls advancing towards the light, who are light. They constitute a serious antagonism to the evil gnawing at the Earth.

These luminous points can counterbalance the evil and, to a certain extent, help.

The destiny of the Earth, like that of humans, must be completed; that's the way it is.

Don't be too alarmed; don't panic, for the moment. Wait to see what unfolds. There is nothing any of you can do about it.

Pray for those responsible for this catastrophic situation. They will not necessarily pay for their blunders on this Earth, but these blunders will follow them.

Creation is so beautiful; from the infinitely large to the infinitely small, such perfection exists in everything. Take, one by one, the elements created in each kingdom, you will be dazzled by so much beauty, wisdom and logic.

At the origin of this creation, before human beings undertook to modify it and thus destroy it, each element lived its own life.

Humankind has evolved, but this evolution has not brought it where it ought to be.

This phenomenon is specific to the human race; the other kingdoms also suffer from its excesses and arrogance.

Evolution has not taken place in the right direction – the good of humanity.

We repeat it, only spirituality will save the world.
