Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, June 25, 2001 – 8:00 a.m.

My child, rest assured once and for all; you are communicating with the spiritual entity of my son, even if his incarnate being does not necessarily retain the memory of it. This may be surprising, but you must get used to the idea. Why would that not be possible with a being of this spiritual stature – are you not used to the irrational? The most privileged human beings in this respect have access to only a very small span on the fringes of the great mysteries that govern the universe. Relax, you are not making it up; you have your feet firmly planted on the ground, which makes all the more credible your forays into other planes.

Humans are disconcerted by what they don't understand or try out themselves, as they do not have the possibility of reaching this elsewhere that's beyond them.

More and more, minds will open to this reality; in the future, these writings will be a reference point for many abhyasis.

To them, benefitting from a teaching of this kind will be tantamount to receiving a grace. Beings of a much higher spiritual level than most individuals at present will establish the kingdom of peace and love on this Earth.

They will gladly feed on subtle energy emanating from another dimension, in which they will strengthen themselves, to help build this grand achievement of the future.
