Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, January 28, 2016 — 10:00 a.m.

As you know, this is the sacred refuge, a moment of delight for your soul. These writings have no other aim than to help our abhyasis progress and rise far above Earthly burdens, although they are necessary for every human being. Each incarnation has its share of diverse experiences which are so very formative. When the spiritual path finally emerges, a real opportunity for true progress presents itself to the seeker. Sahaj Marg proposes some work; it is not demanding, but regularity and follow-up are needed to achieve the best. The results cannot be measured. The abhyasi proceeds on this path where trust and perseverance generate the best. For many of our brothers and sisters, surrendering to the Master remains an abstract notion. Regardless of a person's sensitivity, the results obtained over the long term are significant enough to gladden the alliance of united Masters who are very sensitive, you can be sure, to the spiritual development of all our brothers and sisters who are committed to following us. We anticipate the best; what has been achieved during all these years is quite significant and truly encourages one to persevere, more than ever, on this unprecedented upward process. We can say this and happily emphasise it for the good of all who trust us and who deserve the best at this level. In this area, perseverance and sincere commitment remain necessary while being carried by the power of our actions.

"Blessings to all."
