As regards the communication with my son, all will take place slowly, but in a constructive way. It will happen naturally, we will not put you in embarrassing situations; he will be able to read between the lines. Don't worry, he will express interest and will appreciate the discretion of the system. At one moment in their history, all very far-reaching spiritual ways in certain areas of the world had to fight to survive. The Shri Ram Chandra Mission will be no exception, as it also will cover the world. It will go through powerful periods, and others when it will have to remain in the background temporarily; it is in the nature of things. That partakes of the eternally moving system which drives men in their most outstanding struggles towards making humanity move. We will revert to these issues. Advancing one day at a time is still the best formula—surrendered and confident. The higher authorities act at their level and they inspire our representative on the Earth. Be patient; life continues and nothing will stop it, not even men, who in their sometimes irrational behaviours cannot prevent the wheel from spinning. Be blessed and carry on your road, full of hope and love."
