Sunday, September 13, 1998 - 10:40 a.m.

My message will be short today.

"Love, tolerance and perseverance in the practice: you should get down to this program seriously. Do not waste the time allowed to you. Make efforts to progress. Life is short, even if you think the opposite. Your assessments are not really accurate. As for the ashram, you know what I expect of you. Use the tools given to you. It is very simple; don't complicate things. Let yourself be carried by faith and devotion. Minimize the disadvantages of the material life. Render thanks for having such a spiritual means of advancing. So, take heart, get down to work.

"Blessings."

The Medium: "Is it really all you wanted to say, Babuji?"

"Yes, you are my beloved daughter; I carry you on my heart as per your wish."

Babuji