Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, September 27, 1998 – 10:25 a.m.

A new spirit seems to be emerging among the abhyasis. The visit and the speeches of my son have made things move. One should never stop questioning oneself. That is necessary for each one's evolution. The spiritual path requires constantly renewed efforts. The will is the driving force for moving forward. Faith and love are the torches illuminating the way, but it is hard and even testing to walk if one really wants to forge ahead. We each have our own free will; we cannot force anyone. The system is at your disposal and we help those who are sincere in their endeavour. Your fate lies in your hands. Whatever the means, your chosen pace, we bless you in your undertaking. Pure hearts will see the light; it is up to you to choose your way. Be at peace and in harmony with your brethren; thus will be laid the stones of a solid path, where you can place your feet. My daughter, keep heart; do not sink into despair. I bless you. Enlightened souls will see one day who you are, and they will do their best to help you. We are doing everything possible to this effect. We love you.
