

Friday, October 13, 2000 - 10:00 AM

Our way acquires a new status that will enable it, to a certain extent, to balance the negative powers, that rage all over the world.

"This century will be a long transitional period. A balance should arise and the hatred between peoples calm down. An important cleaning work is necessary to mitigate customs of those who are the fiercest towards harming and destroying what doesn't resemble them. Only love can soothe resulting injuries. It is heart-rending to see that the same events occur periodically. Learn to master your thoughts so that they emit vibrations of peace and love. It is your only resort in this dilemma, where old hatreds are maintained in these countries close to yours, which risk to destabilize peace in Europe. Work to your best with means at your disposal; you are our peace soldiers.

"You have our blessings."

Babuji